INVENTORY OF
UTILITY PLANT IS PRESENTED

Engineers for Railroad Commission Report on Hughes Electric Company

TILT OVER METHOD USED

Company Attorneys Object; Citizens Attorneys Say Plant Built from Surplus

The inventory and tentative appraisal of the property of the Hughes Electric company was presented to the railroad commission today at the continuation of the hearing on the question of the sufficiency of the rates of the Hughes Electric company. Representatives for the Hughes company immediately attacked the appraisal presented by Chief Engineer E. H. Morris for the commission, while representatives of the citizens committee appearing in the rate matter sustained it.

The tentative appraisal of Mr. Morris, as of May 1, based upon a physical inventory and pricing of materials used, was: historical original cost of electric plant, $24,177.00; depreciated value, $24,177.00. Steam heat plant, historical original cost, $100,255.00; depreciated value, $78,315.00. Grand total, historical original cost of the two plants, $34,432.00; depreciated value, $25,000.00. It was stated by the engineer in the report, which was lengthy, that 12 per cent was added on totals to cover engineering, superintendence, interest during construction, taxes during construction, fire and liability insurance contingencies and small omissions from inventory.

Tilt Over Method.

Hans Myer, of Minneapolis, an engineer appearing for the utility, said that it was the company's position that on an appraisal on the historical value basis the entire history of the plant should be taken into consideration. He said that because the city of Bismarck grew rapidly the company necessarily made changes and that the present property is the fourth plant. He had indicated the company's position that a valuation should be based on reproduction cost.

Claims People Built It.

F. O. Hellstrom objected to this argument, declaring that the plant had been built up out of surplus earnings and that what had not been charged off for depreciation had been paid for in this manner. The people he asserted, should not be asked to pay a return on a valuation arrived at by such a method.

When the hearing opened W. H. Stutsman, one of the members of the railroad commission, was not present. R. B. Cox, attorney, and Mr. Meyer, engineer, represented the utility. F. O. Hellstrom, attorney for a citizens committee; Theodore Koffel, as special city attorney, and H. F. O'Hare, city attorney, appeared for the petitioners. Alfred Zuger appeared as attorney for the Bismarck Water Supply company and objected to the jurisdiction of the commission as to changing a contract between the water company and the Hughes company as to rates, which contract he said was reciprocal, and was never involved in litigation pending in the district court.

Mr. Cox said that the respondent resisted the motion, that the hearing today was a continuance and that the water company attorney should have entered any objection he had to make before this time.

F. O. Hellstrom said that he was opposed to any special contracts for furnishing service below cost as the burden was borne by other consumers.

City Attorney O'Hare objected to the motion of Mr. Zuger, declaring (Continued on Page Six)

The two are "high jackers" and the back-bone of the Minot whiskey ring, according to Lane Maloney, federal prohibition chief in the state.

The warrant charges that Llano and Reed led a group of men to a point near the Canadian border where Whiskey runners were robbed of a car and 16 cases of whiskey on the night of March 22; that the men in the group posed as officers but kept the whiskey.

IN GOVERNMENT

Message From Chief Executive is Read at Associated Press Luncheon

New York, April 26.—A letter from President Harding bespeaking a continuance of the lefty motives that inspired the American newspapers during the war was read at the Associated Press at the Waldorf Astoria today.

Regretting that he could not yield to the temptation to play truant and attend the luncheon of fellow publishers he also expressed the hope that the administration would be able to deserve and retain the lavish measure of gold will and confidence accorded it thus far.

Frank B. Noyes, president of the Associated Press, in behalf of the gathering pledged support and sympathy to President Harding in the great task he is confronting and gave the only toast offered on the occasion to "The President of the United States."

The guest of honor at the luncheon which was held in connection with the annual meeting was John W. Davis, formerly ambassador to Great Britain, who made his first appearance before the members as general counsel for the Associated Press.

UNCOVER PLANT
COUNTERFEITING
AMERICAN MONEY

Warsaw, April 26.—Counterfeit American paper money representing approximately $5,000,000, has been confiscated in Lemberg by the police authorities, who discovered a counterfeit factory in full operation.

A man named Simon Lisner and his wife, and Lisner's sister-in-law and her husband have been arrested in connection with the case. Lisner came to Poland recently from Russia. The police allege that he learned counterfeiting in Russia, but that the business did not pay there.

The bills seized consist of denominations of 100, 50, and smaller sums. The American consular authorities who have seen the bills declare they are clever imitations of real American money. They even contain the silk threads, but these are a little light in color.

200 MASONS IN MEETING HONOR
PAST MASTERS

Initiation and Banquet Are Held at the Masonic Temple Here

TALK ON MASONIC SERVICE

More than 200 Masons were present last evening at the Masonic temple for the annual Past Masters' banquet of the Bismarck lodge. A large number of visiting Masons were present from several nearby towns.

Judge A. M. Christianson delivered an address on "Masonic Service" in which he outlined the aims of the national Masonic service organization.

There is today, especially, a great call upon all citizens to exert their influence in public affairs, the speaker said. New conceptions of government, not based upon the conceptions of the founders of the nation, have sprung up, he said, challenging all teachings that Americans have been taught to follow and to revere.

John Graham, a past master of the lodge, presided at the banquet. At a table with him were grouped several past masters of Bismarck and other lodges who are residents of the city. A musical program was rendered by Mrs. Jennie Thompson-Graham, Mrs. Florence Scheffer, Henry Halverson and George Humphreys, with Mrs. Norris as accompanist.

Preceding the banquet there was conferring of the Master Mason degree to a number of candidates. Another section of work was exemplified following the banquet, and lectures were given.

NEW FIRE APPOINTMENTS

City Commission Transacts Much Business at Weekly Meeting

The city commission held a busy session last night. It included in its record of the evening's work the appointment of a special attorney to represent the city in the Hughes Electric case before the railroad commission today, refusal of permission to E. G. Patterson to move a building within the fire limit facing Main street, appointment of a new day-man in the fire department to replace "Sandy" McDonald and an additional night-man, invited the fire underwriters to make a thorough inspection of the city and received petitions for paving.

The petitions for paving were for the following streets: On Avenue C, from Third to Raymond street; Avenue D, from Second street to Washington avenue; First street from Avenue C to Avenue D, and Washington avenue from Avenue C to Avenue D.

Advices Against Non-Payment. A letter from City Attorney O'Hare relative to the motion of Commissioner Thompson to refuse payment of bills of the Hughes Electric company until the company pays its taxes. The city attorney held the city could not legally refuse to pay its bills because the utility had not paid its taxes.

The city attorney told the commissioners that the city could not legally grant the request of Company A in process of formation, to exempt a certain piece of property desired for an athletic field, from taxation. He suggested the city might lease the property for the company.

The city attorney cited an ordinance with reference to the request of E. G. Patterson to move a frame building to a point facing Fifth street, near Main street, which stated that the city commission had power to grant or refuse the request. The petitioner stated he wished to brick veneer the building.

S. S. Clifford and Fred Peterson opposed the petition. The commission voted to refuse to permit the removal of the building.

Wants New Attorney. J. P. Jackson, speaking in behalf of a delegation, requested the city commission to appoint an attorney other than the city attorney to appear at the hearing before the railroad commission today on the Hughes Electric company rate case. Mr. Jackson said he was informed that the proposed increase, if granted, would amount to between $43,000 and $50,000 a year and that he felt it important that the city be represented. Commissioner Thompson moved the request be granted and that the committee be permitted to name the attorney. F. O. Hellstrom said that he thought the committee would be able (Continued on page 5)

UNUSUAL PROPOSAL IS MADE IN NOTE ON REPARATIONS TO
U. S.; ALSO ASKS ARBITRATION

While Germany Seeks New Way Out of Reparations Tangle, French Premier Declares That Failure of Germans to Pay on May 1 Will Mean Occupation of the Ruhr District; Germany's Note is Laid Before Harding Cabinet in Washington.

Paris, April 26.—After Premier Briand had outlined France's proposal to occupy the Ruhr district after May 1 unless reparations obligations are fulfilled, the chamber of deputies voted confidence in the government.

Paris, April 26.—Germany's new reparation proposal was made public today is considered here as unacceptable even as a basis for discussion, according to well informed opinion close to French foreign circles.

Washington, April 26.—The German counter proposals on reparation were discussed at length today at the regular meeting of President Harding's cabinet but if any decision was reached the fact was carefully concealed.

Berlin, April 26.—(By the Associated Press.)—"Germany, in the event the United States and the allies so desire, is willing, according to the extent of her ability and capacity, to assume the allied obligations to the United States," says a clause in her counter-proposals, it was definitely learned today.

With this exception the counter-proposals forwarded to Washington including the offer of two hundred billion gold marks are virtually as forecast in yesterday's Associated Press dispatches from this city.

Germany offers to pay fifty billion gold marks the present value of which converted into annuities totals 200 billion gold marks. The payment under this proposal would be made according to her ability.

As evidence of her good faith, says the note, Germany has prepared immediately to place at the disposal of the reparations commission 150 million marks in gold, silver and foreign exchange and 850 million gold marks in treasury notes redeemable within three months in foreign exchange or foreign securities.

An arbitration proposal by Germany for determining the full amount due from her on reparations is contained in the note. A clause in this note says:

"Germany suggests the appointment of an unbiased commission to fix the total sum of her war reparations, which she pledges to accept as binding and to carry out in good faith."

Must Discontinue Penalties. Germany, in new reparations proposals, declares that the present proposals are only capable of being carried out if the system of penalties now in force is discontinued forthwith; that she is freed of all unproductive outlays now imposed on her and that she be given freedom of trade.

Germany, adds the note, would welcome any suggestion from the American government for future negotiations or changes in the present proposal.

"With the acceptance of these proposals," says the German note, "Germany's other reparations and obligations will be annulled and all German private property in foreign countries released."

WOULD OCCUPY RUHR. Paris, April 26.—(By the Associated Press.)—Premier Briand told the Chamber of deputies this afternoon:

"If on May 1 satisfactory proposals with acceptable guarantees are not made by the German government the Ruhr will be occupied."

It is held in French official circles that failure of the Germans to pay the balance of the 20 billion gold marks due May 1 under the provisions of Article 237 of the treaty of Versailles is entirely independent of the negotiations regarding the sum total of the reparation she must eventually pay. The treaty fixes absolutely this amount which being unpaid justifies the application of penalties, according to this theory, whatever course may be taken regarding the fixing of the total amount.

TRYING TO DIVIDE ALLIES. It is semi-officially stated that the French feel unable to allow infractions of the treaty to remain without penalties as they are convinced, it is declared, that the Germans are only seeking to delay the execution of all clauses of the treaty in the hope that the allies may divide among themselves and make bargaining easier for Germany later on.

Therefore, it is semi-officially indicated, the French are convinced.

TWO MILLION FOR SEED LOAN IS SUFFICIENT

More Than $663,000 Placed Among Farmers of North Dakota—$13,000 to Burleigh

Fargo, April 26.—The government's $2,000,000 fund for seed loans to the farmers of the northwest states will be sufficient to care for all applications, according to announcement by C. W. Warburton, in charge of the Fargo office established for the distribution of these loans which will complete the bulk of its work this week.

Of the $1,385,403.25 distributed in the states of North Dakota, Montana, Idaho and Washington up to Saturday night, farmers of last year's drought-stricken districts of this state had received $663,256.25. Divide county, North Dakota, was given the most help of any single county in the area in which loans were made, receiving all totaling $121,410, and Wells county received the least, one application for $200 having been granted.

Majority Are Aided.

Although it had been expected when the federal loan was first authorized that the fund would be insufficient to care for the demands of the farmers, Mr. Warburton explained today that the department had apportioned the loans in such a manner that every farmer-applicant believed to be in need has been given assistance. He said that in many cases the applications for loans had been cut, but that the department had been of the opinion that it would be better to help as many farmers as possible, even though some of them failed to receive all they applied for, than to issue $200 loans to all first applicants and deplete the fund before all requests had been acted upon.

Mr. Warburton estimated today that the remainder of the applications would be considered this week and the most of the department's work in Fargo closed. He said that he would remain in charge of the local office with a small force until about the middle of May to attend to remaining details in connection with the work.

Following is a list of the number of loans and the amounts loaned in the four states entitled to federal aid:

BUSINESS WOMEN OF MINOT TO ORGANIZE

Minot, N. D., April 26.—At a meeting of representative Minot business and professional women, held while Miss Minnie J. Nielson, state superintendent of public instruction was in the city attending the teachers' convention which closed Saturday, it was decided to organize a business and professional women's club to take in representative women from all parts of northwestern North Dakota. Miss Nielson, national vice-president for North Dakota, spoke of the worth while work of a woman in this kind and of the great value of concerted action in municipal and general community service.

Miss McDonald of Valley City brought a message from the club and its work in that city. Miss Mary Agnes Cantwell, who was selected by the state convention in Fargo to organize this district, presided. A survey of vocational work in Minot reveals that there are about 500 business and professional women.

Mr. Morris was then called to the stand. He detailed his experience as an engineer and described the method of the inventory and appraisal. He said the tentative appraisal was built up from field work by himself and assistant engineer. He said that he went into the plant with an engineer of the company and that the inventory was accepted by the company's man as being correct. The inventory was brought into the office and valued.

He said that the 12 percent was added to cover certain things because the records of the company were such that an absolute valuation could not be obtained as to historical cost value. He said that in some cases the prices were obtained from jobbers who sold the materials to the company but that these could not be obtained in all cases. He said the General Electric company promised to furnish prices and then reversed itself.

Inquiries as to Method.

He said that nothing was included for cash working capital or going value, in response to a question from Chairman Milholland as to whether these were included in the utility report. This, Morris said, was a matter for the commission to determine.

Attorney Cox, for the company, said the company desired to have Mr. Meyer cross-examine Mr. Morris. It was during this cross-examination that the company assailed the method of valuing the plant. Mr. Morris declared that in response to a question as to whether most utility commissions did not value plants on a basis of reproduction costs, replied that there was no uniformity, and said that many commissions had used the reproduction method because of state laws or on account of inability to get facts.

Theodore Koffel moved that the cross-examination by Mr. Meyer, which he said was not proper, should be confined to the historical facts, the basis upon which the valuation was made. His position was sustained.

HAL CHASE IS ARRESTED FOR ALLEGED DEAL

Former Noted Player Held in Scandal Connection, it is Said

San Jose, Cal., April 25.—Hal Chase, noted former major league ball player, was arrested late yesterday by local officers on a warrant which they said had been issued in Chicago, in connection with recent inquiries into baseball scandal charges.

TO PUSH CASE.

Chicago, April 26.—That proceedings would be started immediately against Hal Chase, "Chick Gandil," "Bill" Burns, "Sport" Sullivan, "Abe" Atell and others recently indicted in connection with the 1919 world's baseball series gambling scandal, who had not appeared and given bail, was announced several days ago by State's Attorney Robert Crowe.

At that time the chiefs of police in the cities where the men were supposed to be residing were asked to take them in to custody. In case of their refusal to return voluntarily to Chicago, it is proposed to start extradition proceedings without delay.

Arnold "Chick" Gandil, former major league infielder, has sent word to the state's attorney from Texas that he would come to Chicago voluntarily, and it was stated tonight that he would be given a reasonable time to appear before his arrest is ordered.

OUTFIELDER IN AN UNASSISTED TRIPLE PLAY

Knoxville, Tenn., April 26.—George Smiley, centerfielder of the Pioneers, Knoxville's team in the Appalachian league, earned a place in baseball's hall of fame yesterday when he made an unassisted triple play. With a man on first and second a drive that had the earmarks of a sure hit was laced over second. Smiley came in fast, caught the ball, stepped on the just vacated second base and touched out the runner from first. This is believed to be the first unassisted triple play ever made by an outfielder.

FORKS GOLFERS TO HAVE EXPERT AS INSTRUCTOR

Grand Forks, N. D., April 26.—O. W. Chapin, considered one of the foremost golf experts in the northwest, has been hired by the local golf club to train its members this summer.

Chapin arrived in the Forks last week, and took up his work at the club house which has been moved from the north end of the links to the south end.

All tournaments are to start at the south end of the course this season. Locker rooms, shower baths and caddy headquarters will be there. A caddy master is to be secured this summer.

WAMPETON TO HAVE STRONG BALL PLAYERS

Wampeton, N. D., April 26.—Business Manager Nick Brady, of the new Wampeton-Breckenridge club of the Dakota league, who returned last of the week from Minneapolis where he had a conference with Manager Roy Patterson, is now looking for teams to play exhibition games with the local team, beginning May 10.

Brady reports that Patterson has secured the following players so tightly that it is safe to announce their names: Ray Sautsch, Harry Kandler, Howard Gill, Ray Moore and Ray Stange, released to Wampeton by the Minneapolis club. Sautsch is a first baseman, Kandler a catcher, Gill a pitcher, Moore an outfielder and Stange an infielder. A deal is also on for Sullop, who starred in the league last season. Patterson also stated that Clarence Schalk and Jimmy Lacy had been offered to him, but were not fast enough for the pace he expects his team to travel. He has a number of other men in line, and will announce their names when finally signed up.

AMERICANS IN BETTING FOR ENGLISH DERBY

Paris, April 26.—Heavy commissions sent to London by American horse racing devotees in Paris have resulted in lowering the price in the betting on the Bohemian, owned by A. K. Macomber, to win the Epsom derby from 66 to 1 to 25 to 1 in the future books. The derby will be run at Epsom, June 1.

The Bohemian, a son of Jim Gaffney and Kittenish, has started only once this spring, when he finished a good second in front of such prime animals as Sourbier, Zagreus, Naufrager and Lerapin, all big stake winners last year. Sourbier was reputed the best horse on the French tracks in 1920, having been beaten only by Comrade.

Frank O'Neill, the American jockey, who has been riding abroad for a number of years, will ride the Bohemian in the derby stakes.

DENTISTS FROM SLOPE COUNTRY IN A MEETING

Meeting is Held in Mandan at Which Many Slope Dentists are Present

The Missouri Slope Dentists' association decided at a meeting held last night at Mandan to hold four clinics a year—the majority of which will be held in Bismarck and Mandan. The first meeting will be held in September.

The association, organized a short time ago in Bismarck, will bring into its membership dentists from all the Slope country. At the Mandan meeting last night there were present dentists from several Slope cities.

A banquet was followed by a smoker and by-laws were adopted. Dr. B. D. Rowley, of Mandan, president of the association, presided. Dr. W. E. Cole, of Bismarck, is secretary-treasurer.

Dr. C. C. Hibbs, of Bismarck, reported on Oral Hygiene week, detailing the efforts of the committee of which he was chairman to impress the importance of care of teeth upon people, and especially children. The attendance at the meetings held for this purpose was gratifying, he said.

Rev. J. G. Morrison at Salvation Army Hall.

Gives bird's-eye view of plan of salvation. Says whole idea is to prepare humanity to be comfortable in presence of God at his judgment.

Last night in the Salvation Army hall, Rev. J. G. Morrison, who is conducting a week's special meetings, gave a very instructive and illuminating discourse on the plan of salvation. The ultimate conclusion arrived at was that the complete plan had in view the making of humanity comfortable in the presence of the Holy God.

He forcefully drew a contrast picture of the lowest individual imaginable being brought immediately in the presence of God, and asked the question "would he be comfortable in His presence, and then quoted the experience of John on the Isle of Patmos, undoubtedly the holiest man living in his generation, when he beheld the Son of God in his holiness "he fell to earth as one dead," then asking, the question "would he be comfortable in His presence?"

Captain Huffman states that the meetings are being well attended the results are very encouraging, and gives the public a cordial invitation to attend.

JAPANESE PROBLEM IS LOADED WITH DANGER

BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS.
Written Expressly for The Newspaper Enterprise Association.

Tokyo, April 26.—That there is real danger in the Japanese American situation is admitted by all think ing men in the Orient—Japanese, Americans, English and others—and no one who has given even a moment's study to what causes wars could stay here a month without having this menace driven home to him.

To sum up the result of several weeks' observation in Japan—to present the picture from this corner of the world first—these things have been suggested to me by men of different nationalities and individuals of different walks of life, as contributing to the danger.

ONE—The strong influence which the army and navy have in the empire, and the difficulty the "civilian" statesmen, as opposed to the military, experience in shaping Japan's foreign relations.

TWO—A growing "race consciousness" on the part of the Japanese and their consequent sensitiveness on the subject of race and color.

THREE—The increasing fear among Japanese that an attempt will be made to "isolate" her as one of the great powers and to block her spreading out commercially.

FOUR—The belief that Japan is not large enough to hold the Japanese population and that territorial expansion and emigration facilities are necessary to her if she is to continue to progress.

FIVE—A controlled press. Editors admit they are "muzzled." This prevents the functioning of a healthy, informed, normal public opinion the greatest safeguard against war anywhere can have.

SIX—Propaganda of belligerent nature emanating from sources inimical to peace not alone in Japan but in other countries as well.

SEVEN—A widespread misunderstanding as to America's aims in the Far East and a feeling that the United States intends to bar Japan's progress.

EIGHT—Actual, existing differences. Over Japanese immigration in the United States; Yip; Shantung; Siberia; Saghalin; China, race equality, etc.

NINE—The general psychology of the situation. The press of the whole world is harping on Japanese-American relations, all mentioning war, some the probability of it, others its inevitability.

TEN—All these taken together have produced a "state of mind," not only in Japan, but in America, tending to keep both peoples at a tension and magnify trifles into monstrousities, accidents into intentional assaults.

America's traditional indifference towards all foreigners and the susceptibilities of foreigners, has not to say the least, proved soothing.

Funeral of War.

Dr. Charles W. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard and member of the Carnegie Peace Foundation, designated the causes of war had undergone a change. Religious wars were between different dynasties or in the support of despots, are no longer probable. The danger of war today he declared, in the main lies in the following:

ONE—"National distrusts, dislikes, apprehensions which have been nursed in ignorance, and fed on rumors, suspicious and conjectures propagated by unscrupulous newsmongers, until suddenly developed by some untoward event into active hatred."

TWO—"Clashing commercial or industrial interests, contests for new markets and opportunities for profitable investment."

THREE—Possibly migrations of laborers.

That the seeds of all these causes of war are either sown or are being sown, is admitted by those at all conversant with the situation and frank enough to admit it, and it will require careful and painstaking weeding out of the part of American and Japanese diplomats to prevent their growing. In Japan a mighty effort is being made by business men, liberals and progressives. Realizing the danger they are doing all in their power to bring about an understanding between the United States and Japan.

"There is absolutely nothing between America and Japan which can not be fully settled by a free and open discussion by the representatives of the two powers," Viscount Kaneko repeated time and time again during a long conversation I had with him here.

Folly of War.

"If the United States and Japan should defy each other across the Pacific," he went on, "the results to civilization would be harm incalculable. Nor is there any real reason why they should do so. It is foolish and unreasonable to cause any friction between the two countries because of the conditions and problems presented by Japanese immigration."

If the United States does not want Japanese immigrants then Japan is ready and willing to carry out the Gentlemen's Agreement between the two countries most faithfully. "If the United States does not want the Japanese to come, they will not be allowed to come."

In Shantung and elsewhere in the Far East the problems are too small, certainly, to justify a conflict between the two countries. Surely the people of Japan and the people of America have minds broad enough to adjust their differences in a way which will benefit humanity, not injure it.

Working for Peace.

Viscount Kaneko, be it understood, is not a "soft-soaper." He feels—and says quite frankly—that his countrymen have been badly treated in the United States and that "it is desired that America should treat Japan on equal footing." But he is, on the other hand, constantly preaching to the Japanese that, whatever the issues involved, there must be no thought of armed conflict.

With the Viscount Kaneko are many others who, while standing up for their own side in the controversy, are lending the weight of the influence to a peaceful settlement of it.

They are working, however, under considerable handicap. This must be admitted. The ten conditions outlined at the beginning of this article exist. There can be no doubt of that. And there are other conditions, in internal conditions, serving to complicate matters in Japan.

The poorest, perhaps, of all the great powers, Japan has no iron ore and is lacking in many other natural resources.

Fight to Live.

Japan has only about 16,000,000 acres of farm land with a population of nearly 60,000,000, or over three persons for each acre. Premier Hara declared, in an interview, that plans are under way to reclaim land in the upper island of Hokkaido—a subsidized company having been formed to do the farming—but this land is not yet available and will be limited in area when it is.

The average farm in Japan consists of about two or two and a half acres, so must support seven or eight people each. The farmer must work early and late, at backbreaking work, rice planting and gardening—it is to make ends meet, and it is estimated that every acre of land in the country has, on an average, a $50 mortgage on it. And this debt is growing.

Of course, in their fight for life, the average Japanese wants to go where things come easier to him. He can't go in unlimited numbers to

U. N. D. BANQUET BRINGS MANY GRADS TOGETHER

Minot, N. D., April 26.—Another reunion this week was the University of North Dakota banquet and reunion of Friday evening at Zion Lutheran church. A delightful dinner was served by the ladies of the church at 6 o'clock and numerous college songs throughout the dinner hour added to make the event a happily informal one.

R. A. Nestos was toastmaster for the occasion and called on Miss Eva Ely of Longby, Dec. Joseph Kennedy of the Teachers' College of the University, who was one of the chief speakers here for the N. W. N. D. D. A. N. C. Abbott of Fargo and John Walker of Bottineau, who gave a dramatic reading. Cuyler Anderson, superintendent of the Surrey schools, led in the singing.

Clever and unique programs featuring the pink and green the U. N. D. colors, brought back memories of university days.

Some 60 were present at the reunion.

MAN CONVERTS

Nature's resources to his uses. Every step in this evolution requires strength and skill. No man can do his work with stomach out of order—blood thin, pimply—feeling dull or languid. There is a way to build strong, for over fifty years ago Doctor Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., found that a combination of barks and roots would build up the body and protect it from disease germs which lurk everywhere. This "nature remedy" he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It can be procured in any drug store in tablet or liquid form. One of the active ingredients of this temperance alternative and tonic is cherry bark with stinging, which is so good for the lungs and for coughs, also Oregon grape root, blood root, stone root—all skillfully combined in the Medical Discovery. These roots have a direct action on the stomach, improving digestion and assimilation. These herbal extracts in the "Discovery" and in blood-making and are best for scrofula. By improving the blood they fortify the body against an attack of grip or colds. A blood tonic unsurpassed.

MARY K. COX

GIRL FLIER DEFIES DEATH ON AIRPLANE WINGS

By Newspaper Enterprise, Houston, Texas, April 26. Meet the world's youngest daredevil, Mary K. Cox.

Mary's 14. She makes "heart jumps into throats" as she stunts in her airplane. She is as much at ease out on the wings of her plane as the average girl of 14 is at her school desk.

She is the adopted daughter of S. E. J. Cox, oil millionaire and internationally known in aeronautic circles. Mary intends to compete for the trophy in the air derby to be staged by Cox at Houston. "I may not win the derby, but I want to convince people that planing is a safe and healthful sport for young girls," she says.

"I just wish I could take every girl in the world up in my plane some time. They'd have more fun and thrills. That's what girls love, you know."

Cox's wife flew from Houston to New York with her nine-year-old son in 1919.

"That's just what I'm going to do one of these days," declares Mary. "I'm going to drop in on New York, just to surprise 'em."

FIRST CENSUS FOR ENGLAND SINCE CONFLICT

London, April 26. The most thorough census in England's history will be taken on April 24, the first since the war. Divorce data will be a new feature while accurate information regarding orphans will be carefully sought because of the attention given by the British government to children who lost parents in the war.

Since the last census, says the Registrar-General's instructions, "the war has cut across every branch of our national life. It has violently upset all birth rates, marriage rates and death rates. It has altered the whole occupational and industrial configuration of the country and completely changed many of the customs, habits and conditions of the people. There is hardly a single question upon which we can look back to the results of the last census for guidance, so great having been the break between that time and this."

Precise facts are to be desired on the score of unemployment so that the man power of various industries may be determined. The daily tide of travel between homes and places of employment is to be ascertained so that housing and transport problems may be disposed of.

The previous census in 1911 placed the population of England and Wales at 36,079,192. Scotland 4,760,901, and Ireland 4,390,219. Total for the United Kingdom, 11,221,615.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR TO MEET AT DICKINSON

Fargo, N. D., April 26.—The 32nd annual convave of the Grand Commandery Knights Templars will convene in the asylum of Temple Commandery, No. 12, Dickinson at 10 A. M. Wednesday May 18 and will continue in session Thursday, May 19, according to announcement in the Masonic Grand Lodge Library bulletin.

Special business of importance before the convave will be consideration of plans for the Triennial of the Grand Encampment, which occurs in New Orleans, April 22. There will be presentation of the New loving cup to the commandery which has made the highest average in the inspection.

Grand Commander Richards has issued a personal invitation to Knights and their ladies to come out a day in advance and be his guest on a trip through the Bad Lands.

"If the necessary arrangements can be made a special sleeper will be chartered for the accommodation of the Knights in the northern and eastern portions of the state, leaving Fargo on Monday evening, May 16 on Northern Pacific train No. 3, at 6 P. M. and which reaches Dickinson early in the morning," reads the bulletin.

"Those Knights who desire reservations must notify the grand recorder by May 1."

All Mothers Will Find Use For This Laxative

Give Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin to a constipated child and note its quick recovery.

IN a growing family the subject of thought with the parents is how to keep the children healthy and happy, and what to do when they become ill. Most illnesses of childhood are the symptoms of constipation, such as headaches, coated tongues, flatulence, dizziness, loss of appetite and sleep, biliousness, etc.

You can surely feel safe in doing what tens of thousands of others do with good results, so give, according to the age of the child, a small quantity of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Eight million bottles were bought last year at drug stores. It is America's favorite family remedy for constipation, indigestion and similar ills, and is especially suitable for children, women and old folks as it is so mild and gentle in action.

There is no secret about Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a combination of Egyptian Senna and other simple laxative herbs with pepsin and pleasant tasting aromatics. Druggists have sold it for thirty years, and a sixty-cent bottle will last for months. Experienced mothers are never without it in the house.

One Bean Starts Suit For $5,000 Damages in Hamilton, Ont., Court

Hamilton, Ont., April 26. Responsibility for owning a bean of ordinary garden variety furnished the basis of a $5,000 lawsuit in the assizes court here.

The suit was brought by William and Isabella Gilbert against A. McDougall for compensation for injuries suffered by Mrs. Gilbert when she slipped on the bean in a vegetable market nearly a year ago.

The plaintiffs were unsuccessful in a lower court because of lack of evidence that McDougall owned the bean.

Take It In Time !

DO you know that by far the larger number of the common ailments of women are not surgical ones; that they are not caused by any serious displacement, tumor, growth, or other marked change?

DO you know that these common ailments produce symptoms that are very much like those caused by the more serious surgical conditions?

DO you know that many women and young girls suffer needlessly from such ailments? More than that, they endanger their health by allowing their ailments to continue and develop into something serious.

If treated early, that is, within a reasonable time after the first warning symptoms appear, serious conditions may often be averted. Therefore, at the first appearance of such symptoms as periodic pains, irregularities, irritability and nervousness, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be taken. It is prepared with accuracy and cleanliness from medicinal plants. It contains no narcotics nor poisonous drugs, and can be taken with perfect safety.

The Vegetable Compound acts on the conditions which bring about these symptoms in a gentle and efficient manner. The persistent use of it shows itself in the disappearance, one after another, of the disagreeable symptoms. In a word, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound acts as a natural restorative, relieving the present distress and preventing more serious trouble.

BETTER USE FOR IT
In 110 days more than $50,000,000 passed through the betting machines of the four big Maryland race-tracks.

While the ponies were running farmers were begging banks for extension of loans, and business men in cities were crying for additional capital, but the ponies kept on running and the betters kept on betting.

The civilization that has plenty of ready money for the race-track and little for the field and factory is one which might be improved, don't you think? Surely there is a better use for currency than passing it through betting machines.

NO BLOODHOUND NEEDED
King Keons of Kau, Hawaii, led an army against King Kamchameha, in 1790. Kilauea, an active volcano, erupted while this army was on its march and one of the three divisions of native warriors was destroyed. Pele is the wrathful goddess of this volcano, as many learned from a popular play called "The Bird of Paradise."

Prof. T. A. Jagger, Jr., in charge of the volcano observatory, was exploring a lava desert recently when he found a multitude of footprints pointed away from the volcano. All were in one direction, deep at the toes and light at the heels, indicating a great number of men in full flight.

Originally the tracks were in volcanic ash. Rain turned it hard as concrete. These footprints are to be preserved in a part of the new Kilauea National Park.

Armies often aim to leave imperishable monuments to their victories, but not to their flights. It remained for nature to do that.

CHINESE EGGS
The steamer Tuscan Star arrived in New York with a cargo of 138,000,000 eggs from Hankow, China.

But housewives are in no danger of having these eggs passed off on them as the product of American hens. Chinese eggs are broken before being exported. They are then frozen into a solid mass, sometimes scrambled, often with the yolks and whites separate.

It would drive a retail dealer mad to explain and argue enough to sell such a product to the canny woman with a market basket, so the Chinese eggs go to bakeries and similar trades.

Family-lamp philosophers will wonder why the Chinese do not export their eggs without breaking them, and enter into keen competition for our household patronage. The Chinese exporter explains that eggs in the shell break very easily in ocean shipment and that it would be a distressing problem if, say, 138,000,000 eggs got broken in the hold of a transpacific freighter.

But that is just the Chinaman's alibi. The real reason for shipping eggs "in the knock-down" is that Chinese eggs are much smaller than those from American fowl and would not appeal to housewives, particularly those who often wonder if it wouldn't be fairer to sell eggs by weight.

The American hen has the true American spirit and lays the big eggs. No wonder she cackles so loudly.

THE FITTEST—FOR WHAT?
The first law of nature is that the fittest survive.

When we come to the crown and flower of nature, Man, the same law prevails—the fittest survive.

The Man only among the living creatures of the earth has the power to determine the conditions which surround him. He may make his environments those fit for great men and women, for a great people, or he may allow it to remain, or to lapse, into an environment fit for human vermin.

In our society, the fittest will survive—the fittest for the environment we make or allow. If we let monopoly and privilege work to enslave the masses, the people who survive will be those who are fitted for enslavement. If we build up a society in which all the higher qualities of the human race can flower out, in which the economic life will be lifted to a high plane, in which labor will be only a means through which the physical life shall be supported as the foundation for a great spiritual and intellectual life, then the fittest for enlightenment and for the exercise of the powers of the body and soul will survive.

The world has many great empires made up of swarming masses whose only fitness for survival lay in their powers of multiplication. It has seen others which have waned because the people worked so engrossingly on civilization that they could not save themselves from engulfment by the millions of their competitors who lived on the lower plane.

Blights and infections are living things which prove themselves fittest to survive when they destroy higher organisms.

The fittest human beings will survive—fittest for the environment. What that environment shall be is society's business. And the life of society depends on how it discharges it.

THIS WAY LIES PEACE, NOT WAR
There is no reason to get excited about the rather tense situation that has grown out of the controversy between the United States and Japan over the island of Yap.

The suggestion of the possibility of war to settle this controversy is too preposterous for words.

The sooner we get over the habit of thinking and talking about war every time our government and another government have a difference, the better off we shall be.

The unraveling of the Yap tangle presents annoying difficulties. This is the price we must pay for permitting the tangle to occur during the two years that our government didn't function because the Senate and the executive were engaged in a death struggle.

But the difficulties are not so great as may appear on the surface unless the governments and peoples of the United States and Japan have gone crazy—which, in spite of hysterical tendencies in certain quarters, hasn't happened.

The very fact that this government has spoken frankly and courageously to Japan and the other nations about the Yap business, and that Japan has answered with equal courage and frankness, is a good rather than a bad sign.

This sort of diplomacy leads toward good understanding and peace, rather than toward misunderstanding and war.

Note the opening paragraph of one of Mr. Simms' interesting articles from Japan:

"There is a rising tide of sentiment in Japan against war and in favor of peace. And this peace party is looking to the United States to take the lead and give the movement direction."

The United States can best take the lead in this matter, by continuing to deal with Japan as frankly and courageously as we have begun to do in respect of Yap.

Can't believe summer has come until we see a girl in furs.

EDITORIAL REVIEW
Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinion of The Tribune. They are presented here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

DISTRIBUTION OF WEALTH
No feature of the socialistic propaganda is more familiar than the statement that the great mass of wealth is owned by a small minority of rich men. "Nine-tenths of the wealth of the nation is controlled by one-tenth of the people. As against this Otto Kahn lately declared that, "of the total income of the nation, 88 per cent. goes to those with incomes of $5,000 or less, and barely 12 per cent. to those with incomes of $5,000 or more." The statement is confirmed by the income tax returns for 1918, which have now been thoroughly analyzed. According to these, the relative percentages are even more striking, 89.17 and 10.83.

This does not, however, tell the whole story. From another table it appears that, of the net income reported, people with incomes of $5,000 or less received 59 per cent., while those with incomes of over $5,000 received 41 per cent. Thus, though only 10.83 per cent. of those reporting had incomes of over $5,000, their total incomes were, roughly, two-fifths of the total of net incomes reported. In other words, slightly more than one-tenth of those reporting received two-fifths of the income reported. But this figure is subject to a considerable discount. The total of net incomes reported is something less than sixteen billions, which is manifestly less than the normal income on the resources of the United States. It is well known that many, and especially those with the smaller incomes, not only escape payment of the income tax, but fail to make any report. In the total of the national wealth, moreover, are to be reckoned multitudes whose income falls below the minimum for taxation. Out of a population of above 100,000,000, only 4,425,114 paid an income tax, or about one in twenty-two. It is thus obvious that those who receive two-fifths of the total of incomes reported receive far less than two-fifths of the total income of all Americans.—New York Times.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS
By Olive Barton Roberts

"How many animals have we brought back?" asked Flippety-Flap.
Nancy and Nick and Flippety-Flap sat on top of an empty band-wagon and talked things over. "Let's see, the flyman was saying, 'How many animals have we brought back to the circus?'"
Nick counted up on his fingers "The elephant, Mrs. Kangaroo and Kicky Kang, her son, the Lion family, Mr. and Mrs. Seal, Gyp the Giraffe, the Monkey family and old Granny Hippo and her neighbor. That's all the fingers I've got, Nancy, you'll have to help count next time."
"Fine," exclaimed Flippety-Flap. "The excellent part of it is, they are all happy and glad to leave now. If all the gnomes in fairyland let them out and handed them their railroad tickets home on a gold plate, but best of all, I saw a man put a big stock of pink tickets into a drawer this morning. That means that we are to have a real circus this year."
"Another thing, when I passed Mrs. Bobadil's house I saw her husband's clown-suit hanging on a line in the back-yard to let the smell of camphor balls blow off. Besides I heard some one practicing on a big brass horn. The band's getting busy. But heigh ho, we must not be loitering here, kiddies. A half a circus is better than none. I daresay, but a whole circus is what we are after. Let's see. Where would we better go next, Nickie?"
Nick ran his eye down the list of names on the fairman's shoe. "Calf-oph Camel," he read. "Green Oasis Great Brown Desert, As-Far-Away-As-the-Eye-Can-Reach."
Nancy clapped her hands. "Oh, let's go get him," she cried. "I wouldn't be a good circus without a camel."
"No, indeed!" answered Flippety-Flap, sliding down. "We'll round up the old rascal at once."

GOING BACK
By Alfred Arnold
I'm going back; I'm going back,
Along the old well-beaten track,
To stand outside the old house door
And look and listen as before.
The murmurings in the dooryard trees
Will whisper of cool evening ease;
The honeysuckle-trellised there
Will scent with welcome twilight's air.
And from the windows soft will shine
The light that's hers, and yet is mine;
That lights up love and peace and rest,
Any joy in trustful childhood's breast.
And listening, I'll hear voices say,
This time he's been so far away!
And with a laugh that makes a tune,
"He can't be long; he's coming soon!"
Then, as I knock upon the door,
There'll rise an instant wild uproar,
With many an "Oh!" and hug, and smack,
I'm going back! I'm going back!

COL. HOUSE'S ADVICE
By Newspaper Enterprise.
New York, April 25.—Colonel Edward M. House, one-time confidential adviser to former President Wilson, points out in "What Really Happened at Paris," a new book issued by Scribner's, the need for joint action by world powers in reducing armaments.

House says that if President Harding should call a conference of the principal powers to provide ways and means to bring about limitation of armaments, and if he should succeed in bringing it about, he would place himself among the benefactors of mankind and mark the beginning of a new era.

"It is to be hoped that President Harding will do this great and needful thing," he says.

"Then statesmen could no longer sit in seclusion, hidden behind doors, and formulate policies, the enforcement of which would necessitate military and naval strength. A grandiose foreign policy has been one of the fruitful causes of war. Such a policy and militarism are of one warp and wool and when the one goes the other will likely follow."

House says that the day when the jingo and imperialistic appealed successfully to the imagination and the pomp of war stirred the imagination has passed. People understand now, he says, what such policies entail and never again will submit to conditions which bring in their train so frightful a trail of suffering and death.

BUSINESS LETTER
BARE SHELVES. WILL SPUR BUYING
Ten more weeks of standstill business, then a general revival about July 1. That's the opinion of Judge Robert S. Lovett, after a long trip through the middle west. He's chairman of the board of the Union Pacific Railroad.
Lovett found stocks of necessary merchandise very low all through the west. But many things have to be bought, good times or bad. Merchandise stocks can get just so low, then buying is compulsory. Hence Lovett's prediction that "the end is in sight."
More optimistic is the Harvard Committee on Economic Research which believes that "the period of general decline of business and commodity prices may be near its end."

Money Rates Loosen.
Federal Reserve Bank of Boston reduces its rediscount rate from 7 to 6 per cent. Period of easier money has started. This is further indicated by revival of speculation. New oil stocks are being floated more easily.

Ordinarily it is several months after easier money rates and revival of speculation, before general business picks up. But Federal Reserve System may have shortened the gap so that speculation and business will revive almost simultaneously.

Credit is being kept extremely tight by cautious bankers at the southwest. Cattlemen are hardest hit.

Building Trades Stir.
In the 184 leading cities, number of building permits issued in March was 47,834, compared with 35,382 permits same month, 1920. Valuations total decreased a fifth, but is explained by lower building prices, says American Contractor.

Brisk building later in the year is predicted by Louis J. Horowitz. He's president of Thompson-Starett Company, world's largest builders.

Straws in the Wind.
Situation in England, large cotton taker, causes gloom in cotton trade. American cotton exports last week, 88,763 bales against 118,794 bales same week 1920 and 95,702 bales in 1919.

War Finance Corporation will loan $2,000,000 to private concern to finance export of 30,000 bales cotton. The corporation plans heavy financing to boost general exports, which are falling off $100,000,000 a month. Price cut by U. S. Steel Corporation has not yet stimulated sales. Trade reports that it will be followed by wage cuts and further price slashing. Cut in tin plate was made to keep Welsh plate out of American markets.

Half of little freight cars now are coal cars.
Stock market continues dead. Combined average of 50 leading railroad and industrial rose third of a point last week. Now point up a half higher than end of 1911.

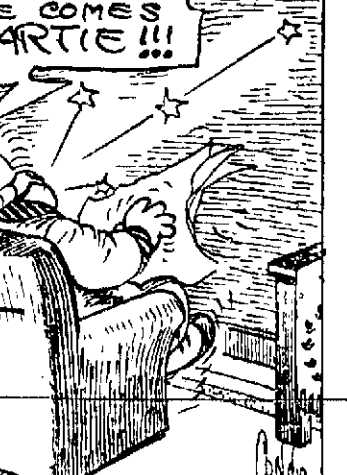

Very dull markets: sugar, coffee, copper.
Crude oil output increasing steadily. Brisk gasoline demand, but other by-products have to be stored; little demand.

New fall rug and carpet prices, just announced by biggest makers, 20 to 30 per cent lower than November, 1920, price list.

MISSIONARY TO TALK HERE ON FOREIGN LAND

Miss Mary Edna Paisley, of Lodhi-na, India, will deliver an address in the Presbyterian church, Wednesday evening at 7:30 in the main auditorium. Miss Paisley has been in India since 1913 and has witnessed the great changes that have been taking place during these crucial times, and will bring a message replete with interest to the student of world affairs. Opportunities like this cannot be duplicated save by a personal visit to these distant lands, a privilege that comes to few, and should be seized as presented. The evening chorus choir will furnish the music and Miss Paisley will sing a solo. This program has been prepared with care and it is hoped that the usual large Sunday morning congregation will be present to enjoy the evening. There should be just as many men as women and it is

HARDING'S MARION CHURCH DONATES CORNER STONE

Marion, Ohio, April 26.—There's going to be a new Baptist church at Chalk Butte, Meade county, South Dakota. The cornerstone is going to be laid soon, and when the stone swings into place, the clink of the trowels will sound a message of good will from President Harding, old time friend of the pastor, and from the president's church here, Trinity Baptist.

The men's bible class of the Marion church that President Harding attended, before he left for Washington, has taken up a collection to pay for the cornerstone, assuring the church's pastor, Rev. John Wynn that it wanted the honor.

Rev. Mr. Wynn used to preach here in the days when Mr. Harding was a country editor. He was pastor of the Baptist church at Green Camp, Marion county, and at one time pastor of the Emmanuel Baptist church here.

When the new church at Chalk Butte became a reality, Rev. Mr. Wynn wrote the men's bible class of Trinity church, asking if it didn't want the honor of purchasing the stone.

A collection for the purpose was taken up in record time, and the money is all ready to forward. The cornerstone will cost $10.

NEW CHIEF OF DINING SERVICE IN LOCAL HOTEL

Jenz Fommesbeck, of Minneapolis, has taken charge of the McKenzie hotel dining room. Mr. Fommesbeck was for nine and a half years superintendent of service for the Roken Hotel in Minneapolis and later was with the Golden Pheasant Inn. He recently completed a four-month trip to the Pacific coast seeking ideas in the largest cafes.

Mr. Fommesbeck said today that he believed he knew 200 Bismarck people who had patronized the fingers during the time he was with the cafe, Bismarck, he declared, was known throughout the Northwest as a city whose people demanded the very best in everything.

The McKenzie management plans to serve meals during the summer on the roof garden, weather permitting.

HELPED HER LITTLE GIRL.
Children need all their strength for growing. A lingering cold weakens them so that they are unable to take by more serious sickness. I had tried many things and found nothing to help until I got Poley's Honey and Tar. Give a immediate relief from distressing, racking, troubling coughs."

CLUB DELIGHTED WITH SUCCESS OF DANCE PARTY

The dancing party given by the Business and Professional Women's Club in Patterson hall Monday night proved to be one of the most successful parties of the season. The hall was packed almost beyond floor space for dancing during part of the evening, but everybody was happy and bent only on enjoyment of the dance program which was between the hours of 8:30 and 1:30. The McKenzie orchestra furnished music just right for the dancers and all went merry. Club members and officers of the club were busy all the evening as hostesses, business managers and groups presiding during different hour at the trappe tables. The tables were deftly decorated in white with ferns.

As a financial result of the initial social event given by the Business and Professional Women a goodly portion of the necessary fund for sending their delegates to the National Federation of Business Women in Ohio next June will be in the treasury.

Most gratifying to the club women is the knowledge that the community is heartily back of their organization in so generously aiding in their plans, just as the club stands to back the civic ventures of Bismarck whenever opportunity arises.

Why That Lame Back?

That morning lameness—those sharp pains when bending or lifting, make work a burden and rest impossible. Don't be handicapped by a bad back. Look to your kidneys. You will make no mistake by following this Bismarck resident's example.

Mrs. J. W. Moran, Sunny Brook Dairy Farm, says: "A good many years ago I had an operation for a floating kidney which was successful but afterwards the other kidney became affected and I suffered for nearly a year with lameness across my back. I got so dizzy I couldn't stand. I went to the hospital and took treatments but got worse all the time. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills being so good and got some. I am pleased to say that after using two boxes I got entirely well and have since stood kidney tests for insurance and passed O. K. thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Moran had. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Everybody Works But Father

"Father's stomach trouble seemed to be getting worse all the time and finally he had to quit work altogether. Two brothers and myself gave up school and went to work to support the family. Father had lost sixty pounds in weight and was yellow as saffron and no medicine helped him. Telling a friend about it six months ago, she advised taking Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. I got a bottle and it helped father at once. He was able to go to work a month later, has regained his weight and strength and eats like a wood chopper." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. One dose will convince or money refunded.
